Index to Kentucky Legal History	1

PREFACE

This Index to Kentucky Legal History is a guide for researchers in eighteenth-century and nineteenth-century Kentucky legal history. It contains references to selected sources of information concerning events, places, court cases, and persons.

The subjects relate to legal events occurring in Kentucky prior to 1900. Biographical information is included for persons who lived before 1900. Publication dates of the books indexed range from 1812 to 1978. All entries are arranged alphabetically in one index. Events of legal significance include references to the Court of Appeals, circuit courts, county courts, the courts of Oyer and Terminer, and Quarter Session courts. Courthouses, other public buildings related to law, and law schools are listed. Illustrations are noted as such.

The major portion of this index is biographical material concerning Kentucky judges, lawyers, law teachers, some court clerks, and justices of the peace. Portraits or photographs are designated. Personal name references are biographical unless otherwise indicated.

No periodicals are indexed; with few exceptions, the sources of information are secondary rather than primary.

Assistance in the compilation of this index was given by Mr. Wesley Gilmer, Jr., State Law Librarian, and by Mr. Joseph Lane, University of Kentucky law student and summer intern at the State Law Library during 1982.
